

integration in the Persian Gulf. While rejecting strategic hierarchy model in prioritizing the indicators, the simultaneous and interconnected use of different economic, political, security and religious-cultural components in achieving economic and political-security cooperation in the short and medium-term and economic convergence is proposed for long-term.

Keywords: Challenges, Capacities, Requirements, Economic Convergence, Strategic Series Model, Network Model, Development