

consequences to combat international crime. And this is possible only by accepting and implementing strategies to protect and insulate from such criminal acts. The responsibility of the governments and individuals in accepting criminal liability should be objective. And hold groups and individuals who commit such crimes responsible.

Keywords: Terrorist Financing, Terrorism, Criminal Liability, Civil Liability, Global Jurisdiction (competence)